

Ramon Branch (tuba) was born in Tarragona, Spain in 2001. As well as the tuba, Ramon plays the piano, organ and sings. He joined The Purcell School in 2018 and studies tuba with Stephen Wick, piano with Lidia Amorelli, voice with Tom Marandola, and organ with Anne Marsden Thomas. His studies are supported by the Government Music and Dance scheme, and he also has a scholarship to the Royal Academy of Music where he is a member of the junior department. He has gained grade 8 distinction in tuba, organ and piano. In the future, Ramon hopes to continue his studies at the Royal Academy of Music, or go back to Spain to carry on his musical education.